Client Development and Client Maintenance: Thriving in the New Normal

The skill (and need) of attracting and keeping clients hasn't stopped with a pandemic.

In this fast-paced one-hour webinar, ADTA member Mike H. Bassett hosts a panel discussion with some of the legal industry's best and brightest members. From harnessing social media to maintaining constant client "touch points" to helping you craft a brand and on-line presence, this webinar will have something for everyone.

Whether your law degree is freshly minted or whether you remember what it was like to practice law before e-mail (yikes!), this webinar will give you tools for your tool box that you can start using immediately.

We look forward to you joining us for a webinar to help kick off a great 2021. Registration free or low-cost for members of respective state associations. CLE Credit approved as allowed by state.
